NOBODY'S CHILD.

Alone in the dreary, pitiless street.

With my torn old dress and bare cold feet, All day I've wandered to and fro.

Hungry and shivering and nowhere to go:
The night's coming on in darkness and dread,
And the chill sleet beating upon my bare head;

Oh why does the wind blow upon me so wild!

Is it because I'm nobody's child!

Is it because I'm nobody's child!

Just over the way ther's a fleed of light.
And warmth and beauty, and all things for the child as a heartless flict.

When I got to the cottage next day the girls were out, and my sunt lying down. So, sheltering myself from the san in a summer eat covered in by Roman overpers and honey suckle. I lay down to enjoy e
